Dear Mr. Ramspeck:

As Chairman of the District of Columbia branch of the American Bar Association Committee on Improving the Administration of Justice, I am enclosing a report by our Subcommittee on Selection and Instruction of Jurors concerning various policies of employers with respect to employees' jury service.

These matters are of great importance in maintaining the vitality of trial by jury, which is, of course, a basic feature of our American system of justice. Accordingly, I hope you will carefully consider the enclosed report and do all that is feasible to bring about adoption of the suggestions it contains.

Sincerely yours,
